

Brad Schuttler, Managing Partner Talent Management has developed a wealth of business leadership and automation experience, providing technology and human resource consulting to large corporate clients, and small to mid-range businesses, alike.

Prior to joining Career Partners International - KC, Brad's corporate experience with Unisys, Data General, and ADP thrust him into the boardrooms of companies like Boeing, Cessna, Beech Craft, Koch Industries, and most major Financial Institutions, all of whom had similar goals of applying leading edge communications and blending that with existing human resources.

With over a decade of experience owning his own consulting company, Brad can quickly empathize with the dynamic challenges facing leaders today. And with demonstrated expertise in Manufacturing, Medical, Government, Distribution, Retail, Energy Resources, and Information Systems, his experience to his clients is immeasurable.

Aligning strategies, goals, and tactics are second nature to Brad, and his clients quickly realize the benefits of congruence in their business, personnel, and personal lives. With Quality of Life as a communicated strategic objective, your business and personal lives become more fulfilling.

In Not for Profit endeavors, Brad is creator and Chairman of the Donate Life Foundation in Kansas, and has assisted improving the availability of organ donors in our region.
