

Debra Kunz, Strategic Partner is a speaker, author, facilitator and coach on life and business issues such as strategic life planning, team dynamics, and organizational change, and works with businesses, groups and individuals.

Her experience spans eight industries over the last 17 years and includes entrepreneurial businesses to globally based conglomerate organizations. Debra understands organizational and life change because of extensive experience with mergers, acquisitions, cultural shifts and layoffs. Some of her functional responsibilities included marketing communications strategy and implementation, business development, organizational change, project management, business process analysis, change management, training development and delivery, and financial advisory services.

She is currently the Vice President of the American Club Association Board of Directors, Kansas City Director for the Human Capital Advisory Alliance, Communications Director for American Business Women's Association Kansas City Express Network Chapter, an active member of the Central Exchange, and an advocate for Smiles Change Lives.

Debra is a Certified Strategic Life Planner (CSLP) in the Mindset Series® Life Planning Process, holds a MBA from Baker University, a BBA from Iowa State University, mastered "Seven Stages of Money Maturity" through the Kinder Institute of Life Planning, earned a "21st Century Professional Leadership" certificate from Park University, and is a graduate of the "Investment in Excellence" program through the Pacific Institute.
